IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

APPELLATE CIVIL JURISDICTION

WRIT PETITION NO.4599 OF 2005

Bank Karmachari Sangh)..Petitioner

Versus

Citizen Co-operative Bank Ltd.)..Respondent

Mr.P.M. Huddar for the Petitioner.

Mr.A.D.Patwardhan for the Respondent.

CORAM: SMT.NISHITA MHATRE, J.

DATED: 25TH AUGUST 2005

P.C.:

. The Complaint filed by the Petitioner is in respect of unfair labour practices under Items 5, 6 and 9 of Schedule IV of the Maharashtra Recognition of Trade Unions and Prevention of Unfair Labour Practices Act, 1971. After the Complaint was filed, it appears that the services of 75 employees were terminated. The Petitioner, therefore, filed an application for interim relief which has been refused. The interim relief sought was to continue the 75 employees in service during the pendency of the Complaint.

2. The Industrial Court has exercised its discretion and has refused interim relief. In my view, the interim relief which the Petitioner has sought, if granted, would lead to a final result in the Complaint. The employees concerned can be compensated, if necessary, when the Complaint is finally disposed of. I see no reason to interfere with the impugned order. Hence, rejected. The Industrial Court, Pune, is directed to dispose of the Complaint as expeditiously as possible.
